Question 1:

Write a working html document that has these elements (tags):

Title

Reference link to another html document

Heading

Image Source (picture of your choice)

Unorder List

Copy right symbol and your name
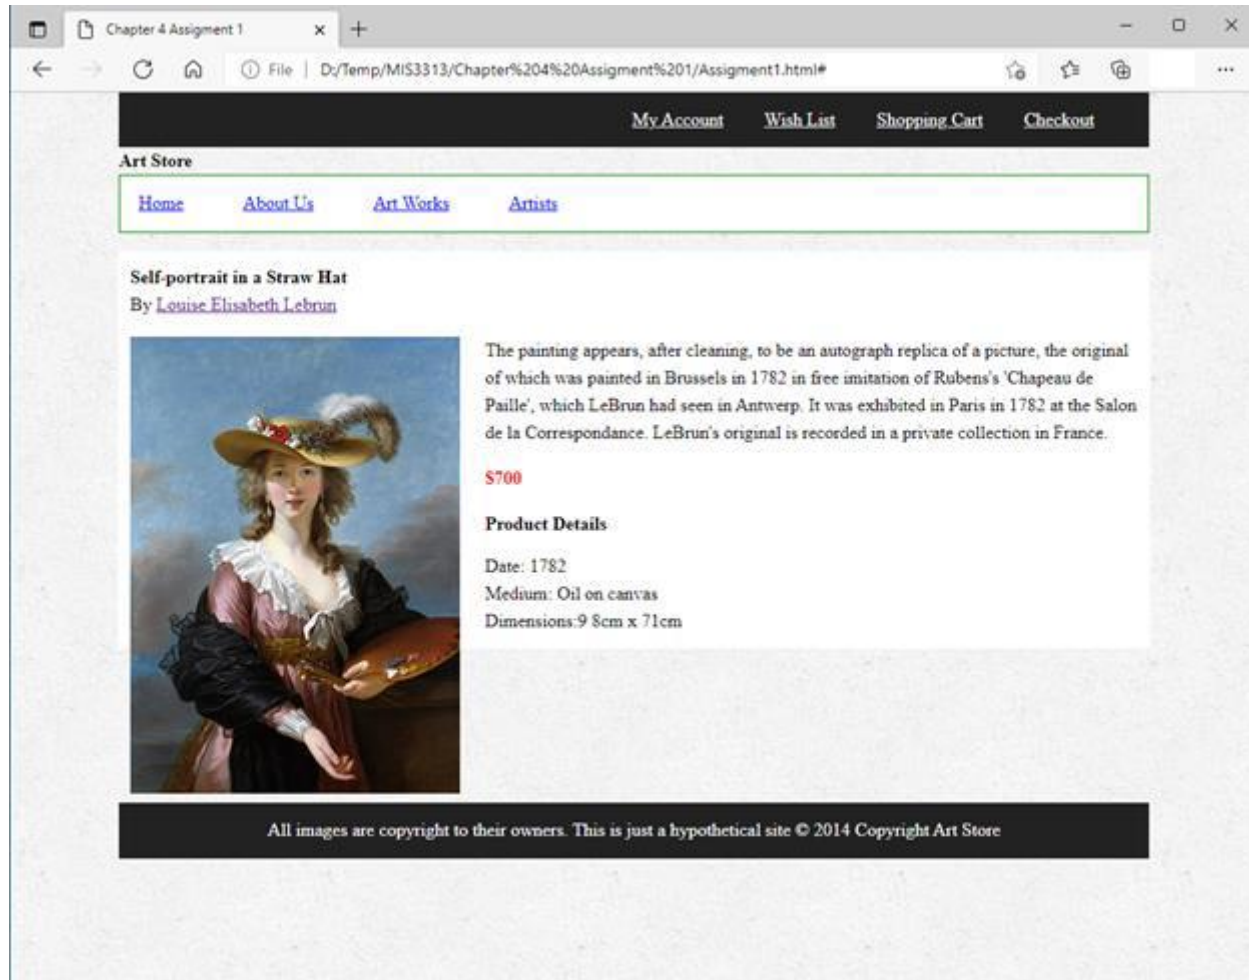

Header & Footer

Article

Figcaption

Example:

Question 2:

Write an html code that displays the result as below using the images in the zip folder Week2.zip

Question 3:

Add more code into the solution in question 2, so that:

When we click Home, it should display the html page from the question 2.
When we click Art Works, it should display the following html page.
All other links can be # or your choice.